

Tuesdays 7–8¹⁵ pm

Newfound Nature Series

2025

Weekly programs to spark your passion for NH's natural environment

July 15: Banding Together for the Birds: The Science of Bird Banding & Its Role in Avian Conservation

Lindsay Herlihy (NH Audubon /Black Mountain Banding Station)

July 22: Dragons & Damsels of New Hampshire

Dr. Pam Hunt (NH Audubon)

July 29: Using Wildlife Cameras for Classroom Science

Dr. Mirka Zapletal (Newfound Lake Region Association)

Location:

Grey Rocks

178 N Shore Rd,
Hebron

August 5: What's the Scoop on Saw-Whets?

Lindsay Herlihy (NH Audubon /Black Mountain Banding Station)

August 12: Counting at the Veracruz River of Raptors: Documenting Millions of Birds at the World's Largest Raptor Migration Count Site

Jess Cosentino (Hawk Migration Association)

August 19: Tracking Change: What 35+ Years of Winter Bird Data Tell Us

Grace McCulloch (NH Audubon)

Contact NH Audubon's Newfound Center at 603-224-9909 *406 for more information and visit www.nhaudubon.org
for full program descriptions.

Thank you to our generous sponsors:

ARCHITECTURE . PLANNING

the Hebron
Conservation
Commission